- 4.5 deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the Association to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

5 Application of income and property

- 5.1 The income and property of the BACME must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of BACME or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of BACME.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at BACME's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 5.2 None of the income or property of BACME may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of BACME. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from the Association as a beneficiary of BACME.
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to BACME.

- 5.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6 Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

6.1 General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from BACME on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to BACME;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from BACME
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from BACME unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

6.2 Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

- (a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from BACME as a beneficiary of the Association provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- (b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to BACME where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide BACME with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Association by the charity trustee or connected person.
- (d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to BACME at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to BACME. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

- (f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of BACME on the same terms as members of the public.

6.3 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

BACME and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between BACME and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).

The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of BACME to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to BACME.

The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.

The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

6.4 In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

- (a) “the Association” includes any company in which the Association:
 - i. holds more than 50% of the shares; or

- ii. controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - iii. has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;
- (b) “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause [30] (Interpretation);

7 Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A charity trustee must:

- 7.1 declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Association or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Association which has not previously been declared; and
- 7.2 absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Association and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8 Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the Association if it is wound up

If BACME is wound up, the members of the Association have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

 - (k) allow the member, or the member's representative, to make those representations in person at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

9.5 Membership fees

The BACME requires members to pay reasonable membership fees to the Association. Membership is subject to an annual fee and will be subject to review by the executive information officer (patient representatives and charity representatives are exempt):

9.6 Informal or associate (non-voting) membership

- (a) The charity trustees may create associate or other classes of non-voting membership, and may determine the rights and obligations of any such members (including payment of membership fees), and the conditions for admission to, and termination of membership of any such class of members.
